

Core Metric Three = Average number of antibiotic courses per dairy cow for lactating cow therapy

- This is calculated by dividing the number of lactating cow antibiotic tubes sold by 3 (the assumed number of tubes used per course) and then dividing this by the average number of adult dairy cows