

SHAWG CONFERENCE 2018

SHAWG's (Sheep Health and Welfare Group) conference was held on Wednesday 21 November 2018 at the Drayton Manor Hotel in Staffordshire. It had the theme of 'Becoming the best sheep industry for health and welfare' focused on target areas for the sheep industry to ensure it is ready for the challenge post-Brexit. The day was made up of three sessions; ensuring responsible medicine use, priority areas for the sheep industry and an interactive problem solving session to discuss industry issues.

The presentations for the three sessions can be found by clicking on the links below:

- Session one: Ensuring responsible medicine use
- Session two: Priority areas for the sheep industry
- Session three: Problem solving

NB: Data from unpublished work has been removed to allow future peer reviewed publication