

9:00	Registration opens, Trade Stands open, refreshments served
10:00	Welcome from morning chairman – Paul Faulkner
10.15	Tuta: a problem in British tomatoes A message from our main sponsor - Bioline Caroline Reid – Senior Technical Lead, North Europe
10.40	LEAF – Circular Agriculture Caroline Drummond – LEAF Chief Executive
11:10	AHDB Horticulture: Delivering for Growers Hayley Campbell-Gibbons - AHDB Board and Horticulture Sector Chair
11:40	Kantar – A Year in Retail for Tomatoes Joseph Shaw Roberts – Consumer Insight Director
12:10	Apprenticeship Schemes - STEM Gary Swayne – APS group
12:40	Perennial Gardener’s Royal Benevolent Society – Helping Horticulturists In need since 1839 Kate Cooney – Corporate Partnership Manager (Kate will be available to answer questions during the lunch break)
12:45	Lunch, Networking and View Trade Stands
14:15	Welcome back from afternoon chairman - Phil Pearson
14:20	Energy matters Tim Pratt – Technical Director, NFU energy
14:30	Tomato Brown Rugose Fruit Virus (ToBRFV) An afternoon with guest speakers and a Panel Q&A session discussing all aspects of the new tomato virus ToBRFV. This session will include R&D, Policy and Practical guidance for growers. Covering all aspects of ToBRFV it will be an essential afternoon for anyone involved in tomato production, an opportunity for everyone to better understand this highly important pathogen.
16:30	Closing remarks – Phil Pearson
16.35	View Trade Stands
18.30	Meet in the Grange for Pre-dinner drinks
19.30	Tomato Conference dinner